

From George Miller (drummer and founding member):

The time has come to make a change; after 47 years as 'Slash & The Bleeding Hearts', the band will now be known as 'The Bleeding Hearts'.

This decision, made after much consideration, aims to resolve the confusion surrounding the name 'Slash' in recent years. Even going as far as being served a cease & desist order from the man himself 'Slash' (Saul Hudson). Ultimately, an agreement was reached between the two parties. This was facilitated by the discovery that 'Slash & The Bleeding Hearts' had been in existence for a longer period, since 1978.

All things aside, I feel it is time for the change.

The band now is so different and needs to carve its own path beyond 2025.

Before saying goodbye, I need to pay my respects to all the players and technicians from the band who are no longer with us. You are all missed and loved by many.

Gary Law - Bass. RIP.

Don Archuck - Bass. RIP.

Richard Surrey - Lighting/Bus Driver. RIP.

Bill Kennedy. - Sound. RIP.

Brent MacNab - Lead Guitar. RIP.

Kevin Alstad - Lead Guitar. RIP.

Frank Juskiw - Vocals. RIP.

And to all the living previous players, THANK YOU very much for all your time and dedication to this band as it now nears its 50th year playing music.

Looking forward to seeing you all, and again thank you for all your support over the years, and here's to many new memories to come.
